

Essex 2nd Team – ICC Division 2C.

The 2nd team suffered their 1st defeat of the season, in their final match away to Berkshire today – 6th April. We lost 9-6 to a strengthened Berkshire side who had managed to call upon a couple of stronger ladies than when they played our home game. Luckily the division title was "in the bag" before today's match so that took some of the pressure off.

Highlights were a terrific singles win by Eddie Chow over Dominic Brown in 3 ends.....some great rallies, appreciated by all those watching.

Also a great performance from Helen Wiley who I had to call in to the team on Saturday at the last minute, after Sue Crompton got called up for 1st team duties.

An all round good team effort, and the final rubber of the day saw Daniel Munro/Justine Miller play extremely well to win our 6th rubber and earn the team a point.

The whole squad are looking forward to the challenge of Division 1 next season !!
